

stay in the city, who will be glad to welcome her again.

Mr. Francis Woodmanse left Thursday morning for Brighton, where he will spend several days, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Polson have gone to their home in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Alma D. Katz will be their guests after their return from Honolulu.

Miss Mary Winn will arrive in the city today and will be the guest for the month of August of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ridge and Miss Ridge at 357 Third street.

Mr. Henry C. Hoffman will return about Aug. 5. Mrs. Hoffman has been east for two months and extended her visit to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Bailey, accompanied by Messrs. George C. Ford, Harley Roberts and James Ford of Cleveland, O., will leave Tuesday for a camping trip in Logan canyon.

Mr. Eugene Heffley, who made many warm friends in Salt Lake during his stay, has accepted an appointment in Carnegie Music hall, New York, where he will have charge of McDowell's pupils during the coming season.

SOCIAL BRIEFS.

Miss Donnellan entertained a party of about fifteen at the lake Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. M. Thompson entertained at luncheon Thursday, in honor of Mrs. Orson Reiser of Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. McGurra gave a pleasant dinner to a party of friends at the Country club Wednesday evening.

Miss Kirkpatrick was the hostess at a pretty appointed dinner at the Country club Wednesday evening.

Miss Isabel Monahan gave a delightfully informal affair Thursday evening, in honor of Miss Hazel Taylor of Provo.

On Tuesday Miss Clara Hall entertained at a luncheon in honor of Miss Rye and Miss Ralield of Colorado Springs.

Mrs. J. E. Bamberger entertained at dinner Tuesday evening, in honor of a number of friends, who are guests in the city at this time.

Miss Carrie Sappington and Miss Edith Hale received their friends very informally at the home of Miss Sappington Thursday evening.

The people of the Fourth ward will hold a reunion Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bailey on Sixth Street and First West streets.

The ladies auxiliary of the Caledonian club will give an excursion to Ogden canyon next Friday, which promises to be a very pleasant event.

Miss Edith Midgley was the hostess at a pleasant lawn party Wednesday evening. The lawn was brilliantly lighted with electric lights and Japanese lanterns, and punch was served by the Misses Winnie Evans and Claire Midgley.

The July meeting of the Poets' Round Table was held last Monday at the home of Mrs. David Evans. Mrs. Arthur Brown was chairman, and the poets for special study were the Cary sisters. Mrs. J. L. Rawlins gave an interesting sketch of their lives, and various poems from their works were read. The guests of the club were Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Bickford and Mrs. Hirth.

Mrs. H. A. Teasdale entertained in a most charming manner at her home, 362 East Third South street, on Wednesday afternoon. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. George R. Maxwell and James McKean. The rooms were prettily decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. Delicious refreshments were served, and all departed voting the afternoon and the hostess a most pleasant success. Among those present were: Mesdames Jones, Melton, Lawrence, Harvey, Lasby, Dedrick, Haforth, Leonard, Dunlop, Hardie, Porges, Jefferies, Norquist, Brooks, Mulhall, Forrester, Rowe, Moran, Burns, Keger, Misses McGregor, Scoville, Angell and others.

A large and jolly crowd of people spent Sunday at the Springs, returning to Salt Lake and Provo on the night train.

Miss Buckle and Miss Garnet Buckle are spending the summer here.

Thirty of the guests at the hotel enjoyed a trip up Diamond canyon on Wednesday, returning late at night, each carrying a fish.

Mr. Harry Goodwin of Salt Lake City is spending his vacation at Castilia.

Mrs. Phil Speckart spent Thursday in Provo.

Miss Ethel Allen of Salt Lake has been spending the week with Miss Dorothy Partridge.

Mrs. Leon Bachman, Miss Bachman and Miss Leon Bachman of Provo are expected next week.

Mrs. A. J. Atkins and son George were Sunday visitors.

Mrs. Sam Schwab and son returned to Provo Thursday.

Mr. Krumholz spent Monday at the Springs.

Mr. E. J. Meyers spent Sunday and Monday with his family.

Mrs. J. E. Irvine returned to Salt Lake City Wednesday.

Armchair Notes.

Mrs. Robert Watson, Mrs. Herbert Woods, Mrs. William Linnell and Mrs. John Hughes, with their children, arrived Sunday, the 27th, and have taken Idle-White cottage for the summer.

W. H. Dayton was up Monday, the 28th, to make arrangements for his family's outing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tierman and children were registered at the Bonhomie on Tuesday, the 28th.

Mrs. Cooley, Mrs. Peabody, Mrs. Cosgriff, Mrs. Cummins, the Misses Hall, the Misses Nolan, Miss Stewart, the Misses Gibbons, Miss Myrtle Fowler and Miss Minnie Ray hunted rattlesnakes, elephants, bear, kangaroo and squirrels in the canyon on Tuesday, the 29th. Eight of the jolly crowd, not satisfied, remained over and continued the hunt on Wednesday.

Messrs. Robert Watson, Herbert Woods, William Linnell and John Hughes were with their families on Sunday, the 27th.

Mr. G. Hesseberg ran up on Sunday to see his family.

Saturday, the 26th, an informal "candy pull" was given at the Waterfalls by the Misses Della and Lily Buckle and Leola Taylor in honor of their visitors, Mr. Charlie Hahn, Jack McEnnon, George Buckle and Herman Mosner. After the candy was "done," an informal dance was given in the Bonhomie.

Miss Addie Stout is spending a few weeks, with Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Sorenson at Woodlawn Dell.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dayton and family moved into their cozy cottage, Sunny-side, during the week.

Mrs. S. C. Hoover, Misses Edith Cogswell, Constance Hope, Mary Avey, Mr. Robert Scott and Mr. Ross Sampson spent Tuesday, the 26th, at Moss Bank cottage with Mrs. Limpus and the Misses Limpus, Streeter and Avey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dayton and their son have taken the Hermitage for their vacation. They came up on Wednesday, the 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rigby and family and Mrs. Ames arrived Wednesday, the 30th, and are at Coronado cottage.

Misses Margaret Limpus, Virginia Streeter, Margaret Conry and Martha Avey made the climb to the Armchair Tuesday evening, the 29th.

Misses Della Buckle, Lily Buckle, Leola Taylor, Virginia Streeter, Margaret Limpus and Messrs. Frank Hoffman, Jared Russell, "Mac" Hahn, Parker B. Pratt and "Jim" Taylor took an evening drive to Pharaoh's Glen on Wednesday, the 30th.

Miss Anna Conry visited her sisters at Mount Air on Monday, the 28th.

South Fork Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Merrill and children of Salt Lake came up on Thursday to remain about two weeks.

Mrs. J. T. Pierce and daughter arrived on Wednesday for a ten days' sojourn.

M. M. Warren and family of Provo are taking quite an extended outing.

Henry Dinwoodey and wife of the Capital City were arrivals on Monday.

Mrs. W. T. Denn of Nephi is a guest for the summer.

D. B. Richards of the Capital City was registered on Monday.

W. J. Bennett of Utah's metropolis is enjoying an outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mangum of Zion returned on Tuesday.

Misses Bessie Hodgson and Annie Morris, from the metropolis, are breathing pure ozone and feasting on trout.

Mrs. Martha T. Cannon and daughter, Miss Hester, were visitors early in the week.

Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Jones of Murray registered early in the week.

D. E. Gleason and wife of the Capital City were among the arrivals on Tuesday.

Mrs. V. L. Halliday and daughter of Salt Lake came up on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Carpenter of Zion, accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Ridges, were visitors on Monday.

Mrs. Daniel Harrington of Utah's chief city came up early in the week.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Straup of Bingham were callers last week.

Robert Craig and wife of the Capital City, accompanied by Miss Edna Donahue of Omaha, were at the Forks on Tuesday.

Mrs. George Savage and Miss Geneva Savage of Salt Lake visited this resort this week.

James A. Twelves, Provo, came up early in the week.

M. S. Pendleast, Salt Lake, was registered Sunday.

George Ames of the Highland Boy mine was a visitor at the Forks on Wednesday.

J. W. Warner and wife, Provo, are enjoying a pleasant outing.

Misses Helen R. Jenkins, Nellie Pettit, Mary E. Connelly and Emma Swan of the Salt Lake City corps of teachers were South Fork visitors on Monday.

Dr. A. Christensen, Denver, came up on Monday.

Mayor Thompson, J. C. Lynch and J. H. Cripps came up yesterday to spend Sunday with their families.

Parley P. Pratt of the chief city came up on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Atwood, Salt Lake, were among the arrivals this week.

P. B. Hastet and wife, Ogden, arrived on Thursday for an outing.

S. D. Evans and family and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cole of the Capital City visited the Forks on Friday, returning in the afternoon.

Among the Salt Laker who visited this week were C. H. Thayer, B. Pettison, W. J. Burton, H. Swanson, A. E. Brown, G. M. Donald, Kate South, Helen K. Jennings, Thomas Mair, Thomas Jenkins and wife, John R. Norris, F. D. Cummings, Mrs. Slaughter, Mrs. Powell, Evelyn Slaughter, Mrs. J. Gallacher, Thomas Mumford, T. M. Evans, John Farrington, Mrs. and Miss Farrington, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rand, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Romney and John C. Sharp.

Brighton hotel has been crowded with guests during the past two weeks who have visited this famous resort to escape the intense heat of the city. Most of the cottages are also occupied by families or parties of young people out for pleasure.

C. J. Tripp of Chicago was one of the visitors this week.

William Kearns, Joseph J. Gray, Miss C. E. Murphy, Mrs. A. H. Mahon, Mrs. A. McKinney were guests of the hotel.

Mr. R. W. Salisbury has been spending several days at the Brighton hotel.

Alex R. Thomas, J. F. Judge and K. C. Park were registered at the hotel this week.

Mrs. J. I. Spencer and family have been at the hotel for a week, and Mr. Spencer spent Sunday with them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dayton and family moved into their cozy cottage, Sunny-side, during the week.

Mrs. S. C. Hoover, Misses Edith Cogswell, Constance Hope, Mary Avey, Mr. Robert Scott and Mr. Ross Sampson spent Tuesday, the 26th, at Moss Bank cottage with Mrs. Limpus and the Misses Limpus, Streeter and Avey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dayton and their son have taken the Hermitage for their vacation. They came up on Wednesday, the 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rigby and family and Mrs. Ames arrived Wednesday, the 30th, and are at Coronado cottage.

Misses Margaret Limpus, Virginia Streeter, Margaret Conry and Martha Avey made the climb to the Armchair Tuesday evening, the 29th.

Misses Della Buckle, Lily Buckle, Leola Taylor, Virginia Streeter, Margaret Limpus and Messrs. Frank Hoffman, Jared Russell, "Mac" Hahn, Parker B. Pratt and "Jim" Taylor took an evening drive to Pharaoh's Glen on Wednesday, the 30th.

Miss Anna Conry visited her sisters at Mount Air on Monday, the 28th.

South Fork Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Merrill and children of Salt Lake came up on Thursday to remain about two weeks.

Mrs. J. T. Pierce and daughter arrived on Wednesday for a ten days' sojourn.

M. M. Warren and family of Provo are taking quite an extended outing.

Henry Dinwoodey and wife of the Capital City were arrivals on Monday.

Mrs. W. T. Denn of Nephi is a guest for the summer.

D. B. Richards of the Capital City was registered on Monday.

W. J. Bennett of Utah's metropolis is enjoying an outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mangum of Zion returned on Tuesday.

Misses Bessie Hodgson and Annie Morris, from the metropolis, are breathing pure ozone and feasting on trout.

Mrs. Martha T. Cannon and daughter, Miss Hester, were visitors early in the week.

Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Jones of Murray registered early in the week.

D. E. Gleason and wife of the Capital City were among the arrivals on Tuesday.

Mrs. V. L. Halliday and daughter of Salt Lake came up on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Carpenter of Zion, accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Ridges, were visitors on Monday.

Mrs. Daniel Harrington of Utah's chief city came up early in the week.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Straup of Bingham were callers last week.

Robert Craig and wife of the Capital City, accompanied by Miss Edna Donahue of Omaha, were at the Forks on Tuesday.

Mrs. George Savage and Miss Geneva Savage of Salt Lake visited this resort this week.

James A. Twelves, Provo, came up early in the week.

M. S. Pendleast, Salt Lake, was registered Sunday.

George Ames of the Highland Boy mine was a visitor at the Forks on Wednesday.

J. W. Warner and wife, Provo, are enjoying a pleasant outing.

Misses Helen R. Jenkins, Nellie Pettit, Mary E. Connelly and Emma Swan of the Salt Lake City corps of teachers were South Fork visitors on Monday.

Dr. A. Christensen, Denver, came up on Monday.

Mayor Thompson, J. C. Lynch and J. H. Cripps came up yesterday to spend Sunday with their families.

Parley P. Pratt of the chief city came up on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Atwood, Salt Lake, were among the arrivals this week.

P. B. Hastet and wife, Ogden, arrived on Thursday for an outing.

S. D. Evans and family and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cole of the Capital City visited the Forks on Friday, returning in the afternoon.

Among the Salt Laker who visited this week were C. H. Thayer, B. Pettison, W. J. Burton, H. Swanson, A. E. Brown, G. M. Donald, Kate South, Helen K. Jennings, Thomas Mair, Thomas Jenkins and wife, John R. Norris, F. D. Cummings, Mrs. Slaughter, Mrs. Powell, Evelyn Slaughter, Mrs. J. Gallacher, Thomas Mumford, T. M. Evans, John Farrington, Mrs. and Miss Farrington, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rand, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Romney and John C. Sharp.

Brighton hotel has been crowded with guests during the past two weeks who have visited this famous resort to escape the intense heat of the city. Most of the cottages are also occupied by families or parties of young people out for pleasure.

C. J. Tripp of Chicago was one of the visitors this week.

William Kearns, Joseph J. Gray, Miss C. E. Murphy, Mrs. A. H. Mahon, Mrs. A. McKinney were guests of the hotel.

Mr. R. W. Salisbury has been spending several days at the Brighton hotel.

Alex R. Thomas, J. F. Judge and K. C. Park were registered at the hotel this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dayton and family moved into their cozy cottage, Sunny-side, during the week.

Mrs. S. C. Hoover, Misses Edith Cogswell, Constance Hope, Mary Avey, Mr. Robert Scott and Mr. Ross Sampson spent Tuesday, the 26th, at Moss Bank cottage with Mrs. Limpus and the Misses Limpus, Streeter and Avey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dayton and their son have taken the Hermitage for their vacation. They came up on Wednesday, the 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rigby and family and Mrs. Ames arrived Wednesday, the 30th, and are at Coronado cottage.

Misses Margaret Limpus, Virginia Streeter, Margaret Conry and Martha Avey made the climb to the Armchair Tuesday evening, the 29th.

Misses Della Buckle, Lily Buckle, Leola Taylor, Virginia Streeter, Margaret Limpus and Messrs. Frank Hoffman, Jared Russell, "Mac" Hahn, Parker B. Pratt and "Jim" Taylor took an evening drive to Pharaoh's Glen on Wednesday, the 30th.

Miss Anna Conry visited her sisters at Mount Air on Monday, the 28th.

South Fork Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Merrill and children of Salt Lake came up on Thursday to remain about two weeks.

Mrs. J. T. Pierce and daughter arrived on Wednesday for a ten days' sojourn.

M. M. Warren and family of Provo are taking quite an extended outing.

Henry Dinwoodey and wife of the Capital City were arrivals on Monday.

Mrs. W. T. Denn of Nephi is a guest for the summer.

D. B. Richards of the Capital City was registered on Monday.

W. J. Bennett of Utah's metropolis is enjoying an outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mangum of Zion returned on Tuesday.

Misses Bessie Hodgson and Annie Morris, from the metropolis, are breathing pure ozone and feasting on trout.

Mrs. Martha T. Cannon and daughter, Miss Hester, were visitors early in the week.

Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Jones of Murray registered early in the week.

D. E. Gleason and wife of the Capital City were among the arrivals on Tuesday.

Mrs. V. L. Halliday and daughter of Salt Lake came up on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Carpenter of Zion, accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Ridges, were visitors on Monday.

Mrs. Daniel Harrington of Utah's chief city came up early in the week.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Straup of Bingham were callers last week.

Robert Craig and wife of the Capital City, accompanied by Miss Edna Donahue of Omaha, were at the Forks on Tuesday.

Mrs. George Savage and Miss Geneva Savage of Salt Lake visited this resort this week.

James A. Twelves, Provo, came up early in the week.

M. S. Pendleast, Salt Lake, was registered Sunday.

George Ames of the Highland Boy mine was a visitor at the Forks on Wednesday.

J. W. Warner and wife, Provo, are enjoying a pleasant outing.

Misses Helen R. Jenkins, Nellie Pettit, Mary E. Connelly and Emma Swan of the Salt Lake City corps of teachers were South Fork visitors on Monday.

Dr. A. Christensen, Denver, came up on Monday.

Mayor Thompson, J. C. Lynch and J. H. Cripps came up yesterday to spend Sunday with their families.

Parley P. Pratt of the chief city came up on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Atwood, Salt Lake, were among the arrivals this week.

P. B. Hastet and wife, Ogden, arrived on Thursday for an outing.

S. D. Evans and family and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cole of the Capital City visited the Forks on Friday, returning in the afternoon.

Among the Salt Laker who visited this week were C. H. Thayer, B. Pettison, W. J. Burton, H. Swanson, A. E. Brown, G. M. Donald, Kate South, Helen K. Jennings, Thomas Mair, Thomas Jenkins and wife, John R. Norris, F. D. Cummings, Mrs. Slaughter, Mrs. Powell, Evelyn Slaughter, Mrs. J. Gallacher, Thomas Mumford, T. M. Evans, John Farrington, Mrs. and Miss Farrington, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rand, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Romney and John C. Sharp.

Brighton hotel has been crowded with guests during the past two weeks who have visited this famous resort to escape the intense heat of the city. Most of the cottages are also occupied by families or parties of young people out for pleasure.

C. J. Tripp of Chicago was one of the visitors this week.

William Kearns, Joseph J. Gray, Miss C. E. Murphy, Mrs. A. H. Mahon, Mrs. A. McKinney were guests of the hotel.

Mr. R. W. Salisbury has been spending several days at the Brighton hotel.

Alex R. Thomas, J. F. Judge and K. C. Park were registered at the hotel this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dayton and family moved into their cozy cottage, Sunny-side, during the week.

Mrs. S. C. Hoover, Misses Edith Cogswell, Constance Hope, Mary Avey, Mr. Robert Scott and Mr. Ross Sampson spent Tuesday, the 26th, at Moss Bank cottage with Mrs. Limpus and the Misses Limpus, Streeter and Avey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dayton and their son have taken the Hermitage for their vacation. They came up on Wednesday, the 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rigby and family and Mrs. Ames arrived Wednesday, the 30th, and are at Coronado cottage.

Misses Margaret Limpus, Virginia Streeter, Margaret Conry and Martha Avey made the climb to the Armchair Tuesday evening, the 29th.

Misses Della Buckle, Lily Buckle, Leola Taylor, Virginia Streeter, Margaret Limpus and Messrs. Frank Hoffman, Jared Russell, "Mac" Hahn, Parker B. Pratt and "Jim" Taylor took an evening drive to Pharaoh's Glen on Wednesday, the 30th.

Miss Anna Conry visited her sisters at Mount Air on Monday, the 28th.

South Fork Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Merrill and children of Salt Lake came up on Thursday to remain about two weeks.

Mrs. J. T. Pierce and daughter arrived on Wednesday for a ten days' sojourn.

M. M. Warren and family of Provo are taking quite an extended outing.

Henry Dinwoodey and wife of the Capital City were arrivals on Monday.

Mrs. W. T. Denn of Nephi is a guest for the summer.

D. B. Richards of the Capital City was registered on Monday.

W. J. Bennett of Utah's metropolis is enjoying an outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mangum of Zion returned on Tuesday.

Misses Bessie Hodgson and Annie Morris, from the metropolis, are breathing pure ozone and feasting on trout.

Mrs. Martha T. Cannon and daughter, Miss Hester, were visitors early in the week.

Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Jones of Murray registered early in the week.

D. E. Gleason and wife of the Capital City were among the arrivals on Tuesday.

Mrs. V. L. Halliday and daughter of Salt Lake came up on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Carpenter of Zion, accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Ridges, were visitors on Monday.

Mrs. Daniel Harrington of Utah's chief city came up